

Witch's Bottle to catch a hex

Ingredients

A small glass jar with lid

Sharp items like nails, pins, thumb tacks or needles

Choose the Timing

The Moon in Cancer Waning moon for removing insecurities or hexes

*Your bath water, plus any other bodily items of yours (hair or toenails etc)
Red or black ribbon
Red or black candle*

Draw yourself a bath. Enjoy this bath, make sure you exfoliate and visualise removing any hexes.

Once you have finished bathing, scoop some of the bath water in your glass jar before you get out.

Add your sharp objects to the water in the jar, and the red or black ribbon. Finally add anything else from your body, such as hairbrush hair, toenail or fingernail cuttings and anything else that symbolises you, your home or your work (depending on what hexes you feel are placed on you).

As you add your objects, say your incantation

*By Cancer's moon I seal your hex
To prevent it from causing ill effects
From this day, all hexes bind Themselves into this jar, to be confined*

Seal the jar with the lid and light the candle. Visualise any hexes you feel have been placed on you or could be placed on you in the future, attaching themselves to the jar.

Seal the jar again with the wax from the candle.

Store the jar safely, where you can protect it from being opened.
